15% WILL BE ELIMINATED FROM THE SALE

On the afternoon before the sale, at 3:30 p.m. the judge will inspect all of the cattle in the Southeastern Regional show and sale. He will eliminate what, in his opinion, are the bottom 15 per cent of the bulls and the bottom 15 per cent of the females. The eliminated bulls will not be allowed to sell through the auction. The eliminated females will be allowed to sell in the "off grass" section, but will pay Regional sale expenses. This system keeps the quality high. Every consignor sends his best, because no one wants to fall in the eliminated group. Any bull unsound in his legs or testicles will automatically be placed in the eliminated group.

This sale is divided into two sections. The show and sale consists of animals that are broken to lead. They are in moderate flesh. None of the cattle in this sale are overdone. All bulls must be sold in the show and sale.

The "Off Grass" female sale starts immediately following the sale of the last female in the show and sale. Their inclusion comes as a recognition that every purebred herd is not set up to give individual care and attention to all their cattle. These animals are of the same strong bloodlines as the show and sale group. Through this section we have been able to double the number of females sold through our Southeastern Regional sales and put more good Shorthorns and Polled Shorthorns into Southeastern pastures.

CREEKLAND JUBILANT—This three-year-old sire has already made a splendid record, and we are keeping a number of his daughters in our small herd. One of his first calves was the young bull at the 1955 Fall Southeastern Regional, Camilla, that caught everyone's eye and was made the reserve grand champion of that show and sale. Those who saw this calf recall his great head, thickness, ruggedness and wonderful type. A proven sire that can do a great job.

L L EMPEROR—Judge this bull by his calves and not by his flesh condition because he has been working hard. Sound and a sure breeder. You will see at least two outstanding calves by him in this sale offering, one consigned by us and a bull consigned by White Plains Farm. L L Emperor was the $1,650 top selling bull of the 1954 L & L sale. He has been an outstanding sire for us. We are retaining many of his daughters and feel that his service here is limited and someone else might as well have the benefit of him. He was one of the best individuals we have ever seen at the time we purchased him, and he is siring them that way.

W L Bank Standard 8th, Senior herd sire, Jacklen Farms, Plant City, Florida. Their strong seven head consignment features his get and service. This bull was the first prize junior yearling, 1954 International. Among his many grand championships was the championship of the 1954 International Congress Sale in Chicago, where he was purchased for $2,650 by Jacklen.

This bull is typical of the many great herd sires heading the herds of members of this association. Study this catalog, notice how many sons and daughters of famous bulls are included . . . how many females carry the service of these bulls.

THE SOUTHEASTERN . . . A POWERFUL INFLUENCE IN BREED PROMOTION

This is the 21st Southeastern Regional Show and Sale. The series was started in 1948. Since that time nearly 1,500 purebred Shorthorns and Polled Shorthorns have been sold to hundreds of cattlemen. Exposure of our breed to this wide audience has resulted in splendid year in, year out growth. Entire strong herds have been developed solely on purchases made in this sale.

We do not claim that every entry can win a grand championship. The tops in this sale have proved they are equal to the best sold anywhere . . . in individuality, pedigree, performance. In each event there are many bulls capable of heading top purebred herds. All of the bulls are selected for soundness, size, type so that every one will be a credit to commercial cattlemen. We vigorously maintain our 15 per cent elimination of bulls at the sale . . . even though all brought there are tops. This policy prevents consignor from bringing mediocre animals.

Fifty-six female lots are offered this spring . . . enough to assure success to those who wish to buy in numbers . . . and assurance they will find exactly what they want at prices they desire to pay.

Introduce some of these good purebred females into your present commercial operation, breed them to your good purebred Shorthorn or Polled Shorthorn bull, record the offspring, and help us by consigning either to the show and sale, or "off gross" sales in the future to supply much needed Shorthorn blood in this area. Your original cost of females will not be great, your returns over the years will be much greater.

UNAKA MINA 27th—Here is one of the best prospects for a brood cow that we have bred. She is deep, thick with short legs and plenty of size for age. This Mina family is one of the original cows we bought in 1920 and has been one of the very best producers. She gives more milk than any cow we have ever owned. She now has her fifteenth calf and still gives enough milk for two calves during the first three or four months after calving. One of her calves was the grand champion over all breeds a few years ago in our 4-H show. Bred December 3 to Unaka Endeavor 3rd and safe in calf.

GRANDVIEW VICTORIA x—A beautiful open heifer by the $1,600 top selling bull of the 1954 L & L sale. Note she is out of a Hi-Ho cow by our great sire Kelburn Yesteryear. The sire of this heifer also sells in this auction.

SOUTHEASTERN REGIONAL SHORTHORN BREEDERS' SHOW & SALE

Lynnwood Headline x, $2,975 top selling bull, 1956 Lynnwood sale. Owned by H. L. & P. N. Smith, Winter Haven, Florida. Two females in their five head off grass consignment are bred to him, two to his other Lynnwood sire, Lynnwood Keystone x, illustrating the potent breeding of the off grass section.

Those experienced in the purebred cattle business, recognize full well the fact that there are many good quality purebred herds that are not set up to halter break or give special care and attention to all the calves they produce. This is no reflection upon the quality of such cattle or their ability to produce top calves.

The market for Shorthorn and Polled Shorthorn bulls to cross on cattle of other breeds far exceeds the supply. There is a further, even broader market existing with the many Southeastern cattlemen who would like to have a Shorthorn cow herd.

The off grass section fills two important needs. It is a sales outlet for good quality purebreds in pasture flesh, plus a means whereby cattlemen can acquire much needed Shorthorn influence in their female herds. When you buy Shorthorns, you can be sure that even though you are not set up to give them special care for shows and sales, there is a good auction sale outlet for what you produce. The off grass sale provides, also, a place for small herds to be dispersed.

The "Off Grass" series started two years ago. In the five sales, this one included, a total of 282 females have been sold . . . 145 show and sale, 127 "off grass." The average on all the off grass females sold has been just one dollar under $200, with an average of $186 on the first off grass sale to $237 on the sale last fall. This means buyers are willing to pay a distinct premium for purebred Shorthorn and Polled Shorthorn females . . . and yet the foundation to establish such a herd can be purchased at a reasonable figure.

Keep up your recordings. These figures prove it pays dividends. Help us expand to breed by making more females available.
